

Kamar Elliott, 2010 NAFL All-Star and Glens Falls Greenjackets Cornerback/Wide Receiver, will make his debut on the big screen as an actor in the independent film, Black Hills: The Curse of Woody. Kamar will be playing as Preston, A college student doing a research project with a group of other students. Black Hills is scheduled to premiere in Albany, NY on May 4th at the Spectrum Theatre. Tickets will be available in April.